Miss Margaret Jones left Tuesday for Hale Mo., to spend the millinery season. When that is over she will take a trip through Colorado. As yet we cannot say whether it will be alone or with a lite time escort.

Mrs. Maye Ely Nichols.

Mrs. Nichols, wife of Prof. R. S. Nichols died at her home in Webb City, Mo., early Thursday morning March 5, 1908. She had been in declining health for a good many months, but retained her position in the High School until in January. She filled a large place in the affections of the pupils and teachers as well as others in her home city, as is shown by the papers of that place. The city schools were closed for two days last week in respect to her memory. Two hundred and sixty High School pupils attended the services held there before leaving for Monroe City.

Maye Ely was born near this city Dec 1, 1875. She received her education in the Monroe City schools and the State University. She prepared herself for the purpose of teaching, and for several years taught in our school, July 5, 1904 she was married to Prof. R. S. Nichols, who had been Superintendent of schools for ten years. In Webb City she taught for a time in the grades and was then transferred to the High School filling the position with fidelity until a few weeks ago. At the age of eleven years she united with the First Baptist Church and was baptized into its fellowship. She later became a member of the choir where she held a place until her marriage.

The funeral services were held in the First Baptist Church Sunday afternoon where a very large concourse of people assembled in sympathy with the sorrowing loved ones and to pay the last tribute of respect to the memory of the departed one.

The services were in charge of the pastor I. W. Read who was assisted by Rev. J. M. Bailey of the Christian Church. She leaves a father, mother, three sisters and one brother, with the husband to sorrow on a little while longer. The P. E. O. Sisterhood of which she was a member, had a beautifully tender and sympathetic service at the house just before leaving for the church.

You cannot say, and should not say That she is dead. She is just away With a tired look and a touch of the hand,
She has gone into the heavenly land, And left you thinking how wondrous fair
It needs must be since she is there.

She has gone to live in the land of light,
Where Jesus banishes the gloom of night,
Where are no clouds, or sighs, or tears
Where are no days, or months or years
Where time is lost in endless days—
She is not dead, she is just away.

And you, her loved, who sadly yearn For the good night kiss and the morn's return
Think of her as living on, as dear In the life up there, as the life down here—
Think of her still as the same, I pray For she is not dead she is just away.

Miss Annie Longwell, of Woodland, arrived Tuesday to visit her cousin, Mrs. C. L. Carpenter.

New Things.

Melvin Nolen has added two rooms to his home.

K. S. Brown is building a four room cottage.

Harry Jackson has built a good barn 44x50 feet, and one room bachelor quarters 12x14 feet, but don't get uneasy, that little home will spread out in a hurry in the sweet by and by.

The Prairie View school district is building a new house 20x32 feet.

James Dooley is adding two rooms to his home.

John O. Wood is adding two rooms to his house on his farm.

W. D. Hamner is rebuilding his barn.

L. E. McGaffin is adding one room to his home.

James Ryan is building a nice barn 40x50 feet.

A Monstrosity.

Kansas will have to hump herself and come again, for Missouri has a ewe that dropped a PIG.

George A. Hampton of 5 miles southeast of this city, in Saline Township Ralls county has an ewe that bred to a hog as the result shows.

The monstrosity had the face of a lamb, ears of a hog and was covered with wool well back onto its shoulders. From there to the tip of its pig tail, it was covered with bristles. The legs were those of a lamb but the feet those of a hog. In color it was spotted, red and black.

Mr. Hampton informs us that a few years ago the Breeders Gazette gave an account of a sow that dropped a lamb.

Hard Tumble.

Little Panhandle Pete has been having quite a time with the left side of his face and head.

He has been doing what is known as "Hopping the Train."

Saturday night a freight pulled through this city at a 35 mile clip and it was dead easy to jump off. Panhandle did so, but oh my, the lighting was hard for the left side of his face and head was badly bruised.

Luther McKay.

According to the Hannibal Journal, Luther McKay came from Memphis, Tenn., to Palmyra and gave himself up, waived preliminary examination and gave bond of $1,000 to appear before the Circuit Court, with Winchester Cook, Milton McDonald, B. F. Glahn and John A. Knott as bondsmen.

A warrant had been issued for his arrest claiming Mr. McKay was short in accounts while County Clerk, to the amount of $350.

Mr. McKay admits receiving the money from J. R. White, but explains as there was not enough. I notified Mr. White and deposited the money in my own name in the bank and as he was very busy in politics at that time, forgot the matter.

When first notified he offered to refund to the county in payments of $50 per month, but he later borrowed the money and made good the shortage.
